

BETHANY J. YOUNG

1000 Dartford Lane Bowie, MD 20721 • 301-873-2155 • bethany.young@duke.edu

---

EDUCATION

- Expected 2019* Ph.D., Sociology, Duke University
- 2017 M.A., Sociology, Duke University
- 2012 Juris Doctor, The George Washington University Law School
- 2009 B.A. (Magna Cum Laude), English, Spelman College

EXPERIENCE

- 2016-present Research Assistant, Dr. Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, Duke University
Feeling Race: Race and Emotions
- 2015-2017 Research Assistant, Dr. Carolyn Barnes, Duke University
The Effects of Social Service Providers on Political Engagement
- 2015-16 Volunteer Attorney, Center for Death Penalty Litigation
- 2012-14 Attorney, Equal Justice Initiative
- 2011 Legal Intern, Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education
- 2011 Legal Intern, Educational Opportunities Project, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law
- 2011 Intern, The Honorable Janet Albert & The Honorable Mary Grace Rook, D.C. Family Court
- 2010 Law Clerk, Children in Need of Assistance Division, Maryland Office of the Public Defender
- 2008-09 Research Assistant & Thesis Student, Dr. Zandra L. Jordan, Spelman College
African-American Students' Use of African-American English in College Classrooms

MANUSCRIPTS

- Smith-Lovin, Lynn, Maria Cristina Ramos-Flor, and B.J. Young. Intersectional Identities and Unethical Prosocial Actions: How Does Identity Shape the Definition of the Situation and Impression Formation? (Forthcoming)
- Young, B. J., Steven Jefferson, and A.L. Harris. Classroom Trauma: Middle School Children's Experiences of Discrimination. (In Progress)
- Frasca, T., Gaither, S.E., Morgan, J., King, M., Young, B.J. Intersectional Identities: Black and Asian Women. (In Progress)

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

- Young, B. J., Mia King, Dr. Sarah Gaither, and Jonathan H. Morgan (2017, April). Black and Asian Women's Experiences of Stereotype Threat: An Intersectional Approach. Preliminary results presented at Carolina Research in Social and Personality Psychology (CRISPP), Durham, NC.
- Young, B. J. (2016, April). Juvenile Crime and Reporting in North Carolina. Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the Southern Sociological Society, Atlanta, GA.

Young, B. J. (2015, February). Classroom Trauma: Middle School Children's Experiences of Discrimination. Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, New York, NY.

Young, B. J. (2015, March). Classroom Trauma: Middle School Children's Experiences of Discrimination. Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the Southern Sociological Society, New Orleans, LA.