COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Lindsey Harding graduated from Duke University in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and markets and management certificate. At Duke, she developed into one of the nation's top point guards, winning both the Naismith and ESPN National Player of the Year awards. Harding was the number one pick in the 2007 WNBA draft, where she played nine seasons before transitioning to coaching. In 2008, Harding became the second Duke women's basketball player to have their number (10) retired. Currently, Harding is the Assistant Coach for the Sacramento Kings and Head Coach of the Stockton Kings. In 2024, Harding became the first woman to win the NBA G League Coach of the Year Award.
